Where You Live Is Not Your Home

To You The Homeless

PART ONE

HIGHLIGHTS

This is Genise Johnson, and this is a written a book to you who are experiencing the hardship of being or becoming homeless, you that live in the shelter, on the street, and or you that are living in and out of different family and friends homes.

I understand the need for clothing, personal items, food, furniture etc., there were times I was in need of all those things for me and my children. And I was thankful. I was also thankful for them that brought me books to read and sent me cards of encouragement and spoke inspiring words that helped me to see further in life than where I was whether in person or on television.

Like each of you I have a story and I believe you have a great story; your story may or may not be my story, but I believe everyone has a story. However, for some of you that are homeless, I know your story and I'm here to help with a message of information, and healthy instruction, I'm here with a message of encouragement to inspire you and to help you to see further than where you are today- to know it, to move in it and to move from it. Inside these pages you will read different parts of what happened to me and how this message to you came into fruition.

In my years of learning that God had given me a story that I could tell and help somebody, I learned that it was much more than what I have ever imagined for myself. It took some people to help me to see somethings though- and as crazy as it may sound to you, in many cases it took them that were not my friends and had deadly motives for my life directly and or indirectly that help me to see the clear picture that I was allowing myself to be used, and because of that I was in a downward spiral for my life into a place of no return.

I wished I hadn't had to learn that lesson in that way in some instances but that is where I was at the time. I needed to learn "The Not To Do That Lesson," and I did, and hopefully you will.

My behavior pattern and bad decision-making lead me into a great deal of tragedies and lack that led me into being physically homeless with my children, living in shelters, deadly cycles living in other people's homes, including friends and family.

Which brings me to this question, are you homeless, in a place of despair, and it is preventing and or has prevented you from reaching for that place of achievement that you so desire to grow into? Could it be that you're in a place that you shouldn't be?

You who are reading this book, it can be the start of a life-changing story for you; living a healthy lifestyle. If you embrace it- it will impart in, you peace and unspeakable joy above what you've ever known or imagined for yourself.

INTRODUCTION

The assignment to write this book. To You the Homeless, was given to me by the Lord in the year 2001 and I wrote the pages I was to write; afterwards, I was led to put in my email storage. In 2021 God spoke saying. "Bring the book out of storage," I knew He meant this book and immediately I brought it out.

After the release of, “To You the Homeless,” the first time on February 16, 2022, I saw that I had mistakenly left out the part God had given me back in 2001; and there I saw that there was more God wanted me to write. I realized I was anxious and excited, so it was released prematurely. However, during the years of waiting for this message written to you- to come into fruition, and at the right time, more updates took place as is this one, but none of the messages lost its value from that time to this time.

Nehemiah 13:30

I have glorified You on the earth:

I have finished the work which you gave me to do.

THE ASSIGNMENT

In December of 2001, the administration of the shelter that was housed in the neighborhood we lived, at that time, had accepted the invitation from the then pastor of the church for the residence to come to the church and have fellowship time with us. I received the assignment given by the pastor to bring the message.

During the early morning of December 13th (not many days after receiving the assignment to bring the message), I was laying on the sofa in the front room of my house when I was led by God to my knees to pray, asking Him to tell me what He would have me to say to them that were coming to the church.

When I finished praying, I got up from my knees, sat on the sofa, and instantly my body went into a lean to the right, stopping midway in the lean, there in my ear I heard the word, “Relationship.” Instantly I became tired in my body and in my mind and had to lay down, so I did right there on the couch. At that exact moment I felt the need to sit back up, so I did.

At that moment I heard the word again in my mind, “Relationship,” but with great emphasis on the word this time, as to say, Pay Attention! And so, I did, and there I heard the words, “Where You Been, You Can Talk About,” and there I knew I was in the presence of the Lord, in knowing relationship is the message I was bring to the people that were coming to the church.

I understood the words God spoke saying, where I had been I could talk about from long ago when God was bringing me out of my old way before I knew to write anything, He told me I had a story to tell and at that time I had no idea what the story would be because to me there was nothing worth telling anybody about my life.

But as God continued to undo the undone things in my situation I believed. And I can tell you today I do have a story, many different kinds of stories to tell. I’ve been homeless and without permanent living quarters with all the pain and the different dry cycles that came with it more times than I cared to remember.

After hearing God speak to me that morning of December 13th, I realized it was time for me to get ready for work. But I looked over at my kitchen floor, saw it was dirty, mopped it, and then I got ready for work. On the El train, I was able to get a window seat and that was good for me because I didn’t want to draw any attention to myself, when I spoke to God in prayer.

I wanted God to tell me what kind of relationship, did He want me to speak to the people, so looking out of the window at the sky and up to heaven and then as if I was admiring the cars driving the expressway, I said to God, in secret, “Lord Your people need to know the truth. I don’t have my Bible with me, but I have enough of Your word on the inside of me to know what You are saying when You speak.” *

When I realized, God was not going to respond to me there on the train, I relaxed my mind and took my ride to work. When I arrived at work and to my desk and began to prepare for a busy day of answering phones, as soon as I sat down the most unexpected thing happened, Names and stories lines of people, and their relationships from mostly the Old-Testament but the New Testament Bible days flooded my thoughts.

I literally almost fell out of my chair! I knew inside myself that God had heard my cry on the El train and was giving me the message regarding relationships. But something else happened that changed the entire dynamics of what I was to do with this assignment. An hour before our visitors were to arrive, the pastor came to me and ushered me to walk with him to his office.

As I walked with him, I noticed he had a strange solemn stiff look about his face even about his walk, as though he was sad and angry at the same time. It was as though he had received some strange, unexpected news, and didn't like what he had heard. But he didn't say any words.

As we entered his office, I stopped midway, his desk, while he stepped to his desk. He began to move his papers around, with his head hanging down, and then he spoke saying, "Things are not going to go the way we planned, no-one will speak, but everyone will sit together at the tables and eat and share their own story with one another."

When pastor had finished his statement, there in his official letting me know that I would not deliver the message he had assigned me to. I continued standing still waiting for him to tell me the reason for his decision. When I realized, he was not going to tell me I became uncomfortable and couldn't wait to get home to talk to God about it in prayer.

We had a good time at the church with our visitors that day; we sat and shared conversation, just as pastor had said. And after our visitors had gone home and I was home I sat down at my computer and went straight into prayer. I said, "God what was that about? Why did you change the plan at the church? I was ready to tell the people what you had given me." God spoke back, saying, "Write it in the Book." Just like that. I was in awe!

I looked for scripture in the Bible that would confirm that what I had heard God say, and the Lord led me to Jeremiah 30:1-2. "The word came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying, "Write thee all the words that I have spoken to you in a book,"".

That passage of scripture was confirmation that God had given me a message regarding relationship to be put in a book. I looked to put the message in the book that I was writing, but the words didn't fit, none of the messages connected with the message in that book, and there I knew this was the start of another book that didn't yet know of. This is that book, for such a time as this. Now you that have an ear hear what the Spirit of the Lord is saying to you.

MATTHEW 11:15

He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

WHEN GOD SPEAKS A WORD

“He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the church, to him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God.” Revelations 2. NKJV. So, that you will know what God says to those who are already walking in Him. When God speaks a word, His words no matter the long it takes, it does not come back empty, but what He says, goes out and establishes all that He sent it to do. Isaiah 55:10-11.

The entire passage reads like this, As the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth making it bring forth and sprout giving seed to the Sower and bread to the eater so shall My word be that goes out from My mouth: it shall not return to Me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I sent it out to do and it shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it. Isaiah 55: 10-11.

To you the homeless, (not limited to one being without a physical home but also you who have homes no matter how big or small, going through homeless cycles and situations, those of you who do not understand healthy relationships, you are also in a homeless situation.) most of you know His name is Jesus, some of you know Him as Jesus Christ and that is good, however, Christ is not His last Name. Christ is who He Is. He is the Christ, the Anointed One of God. The Lord, Our Savior. And I bring this message to you in a book to show you that God through Jesus Christ hasn't forgotten you. Embrace the lessons, keep reading it over and over until it makes sense to you, keep revisiting this until the wisdom of it begin to connect

PROVERBS 29:18

“Where there is no vision, the people perish; but if the person does have a vision given them and it is embraced, they are made happy.” Proverb 29:18.

EMBRACE THE VISION

The meaning of the word Embrace: an act of accepting or supporting something willingly or enthusiastically, to hug, to hold, to cuddle, to squeeze. The meaning of the word, Vision: the faculty or state of being able to see; the ability to think about or plan the future with imagination or wisdom.

“Where there is no vision, the people perish; but if the person does have a vision given them and it is embraced, they are made happy.” Proverb 29:18. Once you understand and receive this message given to you from the Lord for your situation and circumstance, and your all-around life to be made better you are on your way to a healthy lifestyle and a healthy way of living. Listen in God there will be areas of your life that will be corrected quickly; other areas could and will take some time, but you will grow every step of the way and the vision written here will come to pass; though it may tarry, wait for it because it will surely come.

Again, what you go through in God will only grow you, don't be afraid. You are not alone; God is with you. Stay in Prayer. Stay in the Word of God, and you will fall in love with Jesus. He is so ready to fight for you. Receive His Love He has for you today.

You that are homeless; living in a place of fear and despair, and it is and has prevented you from reaching for that place of achievement you so desire to grow in, “Where you are is not where you belong and you are not to stay there. It's not your home and again, you are not to stay there.”

God said, the place you lay your head is to be used as a place of restoration to repair the broken places in your life. He has placed people in your life to help you, so if you are not in a place where it can be used as a place of restoration, and there is no one there to help you, pray for direction, stand up strong on your legs and feet and move. allow healthy help inside your life. Repair the wrongful steps that were taken against you.

For some of you that what left you homeless happened before you were even born, some of you were born in a place set to destroy you, it blinded you with its weakness and took advantage of you, and many of you are angry at the Lord because of it but God said, it was the sin of them that hurt you. “I am the Lord, Says God, and I am here to rescue you- to make you free from the hinderances that has held you hostage.”

“If you live on the street that is not your home. If you live in a shelter, that is not your home but if you can use it for restoration, then do so. If you live with someone but your name is not on the lease that is not your home but if they are a called one by God to help you reach the next level in your life, embrace the vision they present to you, it should match this one, and move forward.

If you were homeless and now live inside someone’s else home and you share rent, and take care of your personals, paying your part of the bills, buying your share of food, and it’s in a healthy environment, and you work a healthy job whether you like it or not or you drive or take the bus, it’s not your home but you are on you way. Embrace the vision, keep moving forward learn what your passion is, what are you called to do in the earth, what is it that you like to do, that’s going to bless your socks off? Not literally but you know what I mean. Are willing to put in the effort to make it happen?

WHAT IS YOUR PASSION
Online Definition Inspiringtips.com

Passion can be described as a strong feeling or emotion that we have for something. It can be a good thing, such as when we are passionate about serving

God and doing what is right. Or it can be bad, such as when we are passionate about sinning. When we are passionate about something, it means that we are really committed to it and we are willing to put in the effort to make it happen.

Passion is important because it helps us to achieve our goals. When we are passionate about something, we are more likely to stick with it even when things get tough. And when we have a passion for God, it means that we want to please Him and obey His commands. Eventually, we will see the fruits of our labor and be rewarded for our dedication.

Let's work from the inside out on this question, What is your passion? Let's get what God is saying to you in your heart. Not the beating heart in your chest. No, the heart of your mind. What is your passion? What is it that you believe you are called to do on earth? What is it that you have always desired to do? Don't be afraid to think, it's okay. God is with you every step of the way here. Remember this is a called assignment, so you who are reading and relating to the words that are being released into your path, come on let's do this. God is with you.

Now, your passion, is it to be a minister, a speaker, a teacher, a narrator, a writer, a voice over speaker, a cook, a chef, a baker, nursing, a doctor, to go back to school, make cars, administration, what is it that you want to do and or what has God called you to do? What's Your Passion? Think about it. We all have God given gifts to do good and God's ideas is down on the inside of you. Channel it through your thoughts, and ask the Lord in prayer, "What is my passion God, what did you call me to do. Lord why was I born?" He will show you.

And everything the devil stole from you will be restored back to you, moving forward, keep listening to what God is saying, add it to your situation and God will supply you with all that you will need. When God has made a statement from His word which is the Bible, He has already made the way for you to win.

Therefore, everything, every sin, every good thing that hell stole from you even if you stole it from yourself out of a place of foolishness or gave it away. It was still stolen, and it will be restored back unto you, if you don't give up. Don't give up on God. He won't give up on you. And let me share this with some of you that are in this call of God for your life, for some of you, God will do it for you for His sake, just because He has called you to a work, just because He chose you. Many are called but a few are chosen.

Now that doesn't mean He will allow you to do what you want or get away with practicing sin, but God has His way of making Himself known to His chosen, He knew from the beginning of time who you were going to be, He knows you better than you know yourself. Move forward in Him and learn of Him, pray, and watch your ways and He will let you know all about Him and what He wants of you. No matter what it look it. Let your Yes be Yes to God.

Amos 3:3

Two cannot walk together unless they agree

POWER OF THE TOUNGE

Now know this, life and death is in the power of your tongue. Proverbs 18:21. So, speak life into your situations and in your circumstances. Do not speak negative words against yourself, or against other people. If you do, Stop. If you have accepted the Lord as your Savior and Lord, and negativity/cursing words come out of your mouth, immediately ask God's forgiveness for and repent/turn from that place quickly. God corrects His children, so don't be angry when He chastens you. If you are one that have what I call the I can't help it, whether you like the sin that has you bound and cannot let it go or you don't like the sin and can't let it go, it don't matter Jesus still has your situation in hand.

In God there will be times no matter how you pray and cry out to God, it will seem like nothing is happening, and no deliverance is coming but it is, are you sincere, yes you are keep talking to God in prayer asking Him to heal and deliver you from the I can't help it, and He will. Do your part. Read those scriptures pertaining to the I can't help it that's holding you I promise you He will.

Man, woman, boy, girl, Get that Bible look up that scripture pertaining to your issue you have on google. Placing the letters KJV on the end of it, of that google search. For example, Stuck KJV, hit enter, on your computer or smart phone, look through those scriptures write them down then go to bible gateway find it and read through it above and below it and pray that scripture in the name of Jesus over your life; you will get there. Follow the way of the Lord, when you do wrong and make a mistake don't be prideful and don't wallow in that area, it is dangerous for you to do that.

If you do not know the Lord and have not accepted Him as your Lord and Savior. Let's ask the Lord into your heart, into your life, into your ways that you may trust the Lord and no longer depend on you own way but acknowledge Him in your wrongful ways that He may make your paths straight. If I may help you with the words. Say these words if you agree. "Father, I don't know the Lord, but I want to know you, it's said that you said God, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Father I am calling on you right now. Forgive me of my sins and come into my heart and save me, in the Name of Jesus I believe Jesus went to the Cross for me and died and you raised Him up and He sit at the right hand of the Father."

Hey, it's okay, you who prayed the prayer of faith, don't be afraid, because of what you just confessed. you said it out of your mouth by faith according to what God says from His word that if you will confess with your mouth and believe in heart that God raised Jesus from the dead, He will save you, all of you. God knew the day that you would come to Him, and He is with you. He is all Powerful, All Knowing and Everywhere at the same time. And He is a rewarder to them who diligently seek Him.

Agree with God and learn what the Bible says to you about Him and speak that life over your situation, over your circumstances, making it up in your mind as you grow that by faith you will live and live good. See, although good success was kept from you, it is not denied unto you. You do have a story, and you need to live to tell it. Where you've been you can tell others about it and help them. Let Jesus help you to help somebody.

I didn't understand when God said to me years ago that I had a story to tell and that it would help people, but it was true. He brought me to understand what it meant, and He helped me. I'm not who or what I used to be. And not everyone will find your story and/or testimony helpful and that's okay, keep a good heart in Jesus Christ and pray for them—that God sends them who and what they need that they may receive the help that you are receiving today..

Proverbs 19:17

“He that hath pity upon the poor lend unto the LORD; and that which He hath given will he pay him again.”

PHYSICALLY HOMELESS

I was homeless and lived in the shelter twice with my children and it was hard. I was confused, my emotions were out of whack, and all over the place, if I may use that analogy. What I'm saying is, I was messed up, but I knew God had called me into a work in Him,

I didn't know all of what kind of work, but I knew I had a passion for people, and I loved to see people made happy and that helped me to find my purpose. Find your passion and you have found your purpose.

John 14:6

He is the way the truth and the life

OLD RELATIONSHIPS

I didn't know what a good relationship was, and I tell you the truth every last relationship I went in took me into a downward spiral and I was in worse shape coming out than I was going in. But God will take a bad situation that you are in and make it good.

See, I made the mistake of bringing people into my life just because they were nice and or seemed nice, and don't let them look like they had it all together, I wanted them to be my friend for life. And I learned I did all that like that because I didn't know me. With all that has been said, learn who you really are.

I also chose people based on what I believed they could do for me, men; women, and it led me into a deep place of false humility, lies and deceit, toward myself, because I didn't know me; the person I operated in wasn't the real me, it was the me that had been hurt, harmed, and rejected in the name of love. See, some people will take advantage of that low place in you.

Now don't get me wrong, inside those relationships I had been manipulated, mishandled, used, and abused and I harmed people in that same manner, see, hurting people really do hurt other people, whether they mean to or not. But you don't have to be a part of that cycle of pain. In God, you can learn and say no to your selfish way. Trust in the Lord, He is the only way.

NEEDY NO!

Online definitions (Type Needy KJV)

What is a needy person?

- a push for continuous conversation (texting, calling, emailing, social media posting)
- persistently asking for reaffirmations of love.
- seeking out compliments.
- wanting to spend every moment together.
- difficulty making decisions alone.

- anger or sadness when partner spends time with other people.

What type of person is needy? someone who feels they need more attention and validation than others in a group. Study that list more, making the choice today not to be or to become needy, even if you're in a great need, especially for people to be in your life, don't get me wrong, we all love having friends but don't just go anywhere with anybody because of their sweet-sounding words or because they look like they got it all together. It's a place that leads to nowhere. I wished I had known that.

And don't be that one that make people believe you are their one, the one that's going to take care of them. Slow down, learn who you are; take deep breaths, and search down in your own soul. In short, your soul is your will, your mindset, your emotions, your feelings. I wish I had known this. I would be further along in ministry and in my success if I had but God didn't leave me there, I needed to that in that way, but you don't have to. Our success was delayed but is not denied unto us.

The Lord will give strength unto his people.
the Lord will bless his people with peace.

WHAT ABOUT PEOPLE?

We all meet people, good people and then not so good people, people we like, people we think is not such a good match. Do your homework, check people out and if it's not working, don't attach, or connect yourself to people because you don't know who you are, slow down, chill, stop; turn to God and pray to Him, Ask Him! Help me Lord to know, who I am? Seek His counsel, stay focused, and wait on the Lord to connect you with people. He will.

Everything you and I need to know for our good mind is in the Lord, the word of God/ the Bible, that we may move correctly in the way of the Lord that our lives be made well. He is the way, the truth and the life. Allow God to answer you, let Him meet you where you are and show you where your change is, and wait there until He directs you from His word.

Do not look to the world for God, look to God for God and wait for the people that God has called to be in your life, nothing is wrong with following but for you follow them that follow Christ for real..

You will not lose waiting on God. God knows how to keep you. He knows how and when to move you. God will point you in the direction you are to go and show you what you need to know about you and fix you. God really is a heart fixer and a mind regulator. He Really Does Save And Deliver.

Ephesians 4:29

Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

UNGODLY BEHAVIOR

Don't allow ungodly behavior to enter your mind or your way because it don't look like things are going to turn out for your good. All things work together the good of them that love God, and called for His purpose, and you defiantly are called to Him, so love God. To love God is to obey His way. He loves you; He gave His life for you through His Son, Jesus the Christ. I know this is a lot but grab ahold of the word of God. He Is With You.

Again, God will send people into your situation to help you, and at the same time pay attention to the help that come to you. Not all help is God's help. It can look like God's help and not be. Don't be in a hurry to do anything but to pray, submit to God and thank Him for what He has done. Stay prayed up. It may sound contradictory to the words I've said but it's not. Teachers of the word of God are necessary for the kingdom of God. And at the same time get to know the Lord for yourself, watch and pray, read your Bible/the word of God.

1 John 5:7

For there are three that bear record in Heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost; and these three are one.

ONE GOD

God is a Spirit and they that worship Him must worship Him in the Spirit and in Truth. There is only one God, the Father, the Word, the Holy Spirit; these three are one. He is One God. His Name is above every name and the only name given to man to be saved and His Name is Jesus. Jesus Christ, our Lord; Our God. Christ is not his last name. Christ means the Sent One. "For God so loved the world that He gave (sent) His only begotten Son that whosoever believe in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. John 3:16.

BE THE BEST YOU AND BREAK THROUGH

Be your best and answer the call of God today with your yes. Lift up your hands, answer the Lord's call of salvation on your life, if you don't know what to say, I can help you, confess these words to the Lord. Heavenly Father, I believe in Jesus Christ that You sent Your Son for me. He died on the cross for my sins, and raised from the dead on the third day, and He's alive and moving on my behalf daily. Heavenly Father, by faith I come to You in the Name of Jesus Christ asking you to come into my heart and save me, forgive me of my sins, live in me that I live a changed life in your sight. Help me, Lord. I repent of my sins in Jesus Name.

JOHN 8:36

“If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.”

MANY OF YOU

Many of you have been waiting for the opportunity for a breakthrough can be yours today by accepting God into your heart through faith by way of the Name of Jesus the Christ and walk in that way. This is what I mean.

Jesus says, “Come to me, all you who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly, in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.” Matthew 11:28-30.

If you doubt the power of God, humble yourself ask God, to help you in your unbelief. There was a man that brought his son to Jesus to heal him and the Lord said, all things are possible with the Lord, and the man said, I believe; help my unbelief. Mark 9:23. Verse 24 Jesus then healed the boy.

When the Lord makes you free you are free indeed.

John 8:36.

SALVATION

You cannot receive salvation of the Lord unless you believe. Romans 10:9, If thou shalt confess/speak, out of your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and shall believe in thine/your heart that God hath/has raised Him from the dead, thou/you shall be saved. For with the heart man believe unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. Romans 10:9-10 Continue reading 10:11-27.

PROVERBS 3:5-6

Trust in the Lord with all your heart; lean not to your own understanding but in all your ways acknowledge Him,

me?

I'm Genise Johnson and again I suffered through a cycle of homelessness off and on for many years, even when I had money the dry cycles were still present in my life because I had not had a change mind therefore, the pain and despair, physically, mentally, and emotionally was still on me, but thankfully that entire ordeal of poverty brought me to the place where I came to know Jesus Christ and accepted Him and His call on my life.

And God transformed my way of thinking through the word of God and directed me in the way He would have me to go, and I went that way. Today, in May of 2023, someone might say but you receive food stamps, I receive social security and a pension too, go figure. I do have haters people, and Jesus said it best,

*These things I command you that you love one another. If the world hate you, you know that it hated me before it hated you. If you were of the world, the world would love his- own: but because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hate you. John 15:17-19.

I'm the mother of four, one son-law; two- son- laws to come and a beautiful daughter-in-law to be. I'm the grandmother of ten with more grands on the way, I live in Illinois and is the owner of two not for-profit ministries, "Open Door Outreach, and At my desk He Speaks," these ministries were given to me by God to use as a tool, to tell the people that God called me to, about Him.
